Multisite Pilot Projects: What, When, and Who

What:

The CTR-IN Program is offering a series of Workshops designed to promote and support multi-site pilot projects to address emerging health issues in the Mountain West States.

When: A series of three workshops on September 16, 2019 (session1), October 14, 2019 (session 2) and November 18, 2019 (session 3); 1-2 PM Mt. Time.

Session 1: What is your study question? What is the goal of your pilot research?

Session 2: Why extend pilot research to multiple sites? It's more than just more data! Study designs and methods in multisite studies.

Session 3: Team sports: the organizational plan and processes. Roles, goals, and detailed plans.

Who: Investigators wanting to know more about how to plan and implement an application to the CTR-IN Multisite Pilot Study funding opportunity. Preregistration is required through the links below.
