

Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research

Department of Quantitative Health Sciences
John A. Burns School of Medicine

BUILD YOUR CAREER IN CLINICAL RESEARCH

Application Deadline for Fall Semester Only: July 15

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Ideal for medical trainees, gap-year students, health care providers, allied health professionals, and other clinical health professionals

15 graduate credits in two semesters full-time or at your own pace part-time

CERTIFICATE COURSEWORK REQUIREMENTS

BIOM 640 - Intro to Clinical Research (3 cr.)

QHS 600 - Biostatistics Concepts for Clinical Researchers (3 cr.)
or QHS 601 - Fundamentals of Biostatistics (3 cr.)

BIOM 660 - Mentored Capstone Research Practicum (2 cr.)

7 credits of elective courses

Please visit our website for more information on the Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS

- ◆ Clinical research and trial design
- ◆ Statistical data analysis
- ◆ Clinical research protocol development
- ◆ Ethical conduct of clinical research

POTENTIAL CAREERS

- ◆ Physician Researcher
- ◆ Clinical Research Coordinator
- ◆ Clinical Trials Manager
- ◆ Regulatory Associate
- ◆ Research Study Monitor

qhs.jabsom.hawaii.edu/education/graduate-certificate

GradCTR@hawaii.edu

